Dear Parents,

This is to bring into your kind notice that we are receiving messages & calls from the parents about the procurement of books & uniform, for the same we want to make it clear from our side that the book list along with the uniforms details is being uploaded on the school website and no specific vendor is fixed.

The books mentioned in the books list are prevalent and belongs to renowned publications, which are available in the open market.

The uniform material and fabric selected is also very common and manufactured by a very popular cloth manufacturer.

You are free to buy the books as per the book list and get the uniform stitched as per the prescribed pattern from anywhere as per your convenience. To be stick to the design and pattern of the school uniform, kindly refer to the school almanac.

Regards
